177	I really liked the cabins, and the councilers were nice. I also liked the activities. Normally at camps, there are always "the mean councilers" that you try to stay away from. There were not any here.	Nov 30, 2009 9:15 PM
178	The fishing is wonderful and this camp has the most beautiful location, especially in the fall. I love the 2 lakes and the reflection of the trees upon them, and the waterfall one can find in the back off the woods.	Dec 3, 2009 9:31 PM
179	It is my favorite because it has a good view of the lake ANYWHERE around it and i also like the cabins and the museum and artifical artifacts and just everything. It has a lot of different things that are interesting and the differnet places are cool.	Dec 4, 2009 2:04 AM
180	because it was the most fun camp i ever went to!	Dec 8, 2009 1:07 AM
181	I've been there so many times I know everything by heart. It's really big with lots of trails and places to go. The cabins are nice.	Dec 9, 2009 2:47 AM
182	there are a lot of different places to stay, more than any of the other camps I've been to, and it's a really pretty camp with lots to do. It's a great place for holding Service Unit camps and events because of Gund Hall and the many types of sites for girls of different ages.	Dec 10, 2009 9:29 PM
183	it is so much fun! I love the buildings! amity and north are my favorties. I love the houses. I wish my house was like these	Dec 11, 2009 10:12 PM
184	It has flush toilets The cabins are very cool	Dec 11, 2009 10:29 PM
185	because my troop has been going there since we were daisies	Dec 11, 2009 10:55 PM

Why is this camp your favorite?
186	The one I have spent the most time at, would like to visit others.	Dec 12, 2009 2:31 AM
187	Learning to swim	Dec 12, 2009 3:37 AM
188	because it is real camping..you get dirty. Also STAN!!!! the hidden treasures at the camp are great. It is also big enough for service units.	Dec 12, 2009 3:41 AM
189	because it is a real camp....this is where history is. All anyone has to do is listen to the history and or take the walking tour.	Dec 12, 2009 3:51 AM
190	lots of good memories there	Dec 12, 2009 5:44 AM
191	this is my favorite camp because it is convent for all of us wadsworth girls to go to. Also if the younger troops want to camp and the girls get home sick they can go home easily	Dec 12, 2009 12:15 PM
192	Because we made s'mores in the evening around the campfire.	Dec 12, 2009 2:09 PM
193	Because there is archery, fishing, and canoeing. They were more accessible than at Camp Hilaka.	Dec 12, 2009 2:21 PM
194	This camp was my favorite because everything was close together but not too close. Ledgewood also had a really nice lake which allowed us to go canoeing.	Dec 12, 2009 4:15 PM
195	It has my favorite cabin--the treehouse, and it has activities centers all around the camp site.	Dec 13, 2009 3:07 PM
196	we could be with just our troop and not be rushed for schedules. luv'd being away from city lights and with nature. So many stars to see. luv'd playing in river and hiking there.	Dec 15, 2009 4:54 PM
197	I don't remember which one we went to. But I had a fun time!!	Dec 15, 2009 5:25 PM
198	Camp Ledgewood is my favorite camp because the counselors are very nice and have very funny names that they make up to cheer the kids up if they feel homesick our miss their parents. I also like this camp because they have very fun arts and crafts to do. Camp Ledgewood Rocks!	Dec 16, 2009 1:32 AM
199	I like Camp Hilaka because it is simple: it doesn't have things such as a pool, or showers, or anything big and fancy. Because these things are missing, you have more time to see what you usually miss, things such as nature, and girls from the city can come here and see and do what they don't usually get to do, things like boating, hiking, learning about nature, challenge course, and other outdoor things that are not accessible in the city. But I think that they should bring the horses back.... that is a really good experience for all... no matter where they are from. I really like this camp and want to come back. Sadly though it is closed at the moment..... and we don't know when it will reopen. It can not close because that would be devastating to the people who feel strong love towards this camp, girls and adults.	Dec 17, 2009 10:58 PM
200	The day camp activities were very fun and got to work on badges.	Dec 18, 2009 10:31 PM

209	More opportunities.	Dec 25, 2009 3:45 PM
210	lots to do. I know it really well, there is a creek, lots of trails, day camp is fun there. The cabins are usually clean and well taken care of. We can stay in a small or big cabin depending on how many people and how much money we want to spend. I would rather stay in a ground tent than a platform tent because I like the bottom to seal.	Dec 26, 2009 8:34 PM

220	because it is cool and big	Jan 2, 2010 9:41 PM
221	This camp is my favorite because it's the camp that I go to for summer camp (because it offers the best programs with the widest range of activities so that girls with different like and dislikes get a good variety of stuuf to do). I also like that during summer camp the girls are trusted with a little more independence than say Ledgewood, for example at sugarbush each individual girl gets to plan part of their schedule with the things that she wants to do where as at Ledgewood the events are either planned for you or it's majority rules. I also love that the camping choices there are different than the average campsites I've ever previously been to, for example there's covered wagons, huge adderondecks and cabins with unique feels to the m that are unlike any other cabins I've stayed at!	Jan 4, 2010 8:42 PM

227	It is the one I go to most often because it is close to my house (45 minutes away)	Jan 9, 2010 10:14 PM
228	Because it was closer to my home and we used the city pool. I have never been to Sugarbush in the summer for the activites. I have only been their for something in the day and when it has been cold or snowing.	Jan 10, 2010 9:47 PM

247	Its a beautiful place and I loved the bouncing floor in Garfield Hall and the mill wheel. I loved playing on the hill and trying to figure out how the sun dial worked. I loved the horses when they were there and watching them and taking lessons for the little while I could. The buildings are absolutely wonderful and a great asset to Girl Scouts. They are a way for girls to connect to the past which I think is really important. There are so many great opportunities for learning, exploration, excitement, and fun at Camp Crowell/Hilaka that I honestly believe cannot be matched by any of the other camps I've been to.
