13	It was difficult to even take girls out of our county to other camps due to all the extensive paper work that had to be filled out. Compared to boy scouts with kids the exact same age, it was so surprising what paperwork it took to cross county lines. We would have done many other camps were it more accessible. We went to Camp-Y Noah several times too because the red tape was easier to deal with.	Oct 10, 2009 9:16 AM

46	I grew up at Great Trail, attending resident camp there for several years. I attended day camp as a child at Price Park in North Canton. I've taken my troop camping at Camp Lejnar in Leroy (the closest GS camp to us) and we've also gone twice to Camp Sugarbush. My troop has never attended a day camp experience, but in Madison, we instead had "Adventure Days" last summer with GS programming every Tuesday night during the month of July. This was a fun-filled experience for the girls. It was held at a Lake Metropark.	Oct 26, 2009 11:06 AM
47	Can't remember but stayed in a facility once owned by the Kirby family (Kirby vaccum cleaners).	Oct 26, 2009 11:19 AM
